SUBJECT	Quotes Pravda on CIA Agents in USSR

PETER JENNINGS: This late note from overseas.

The Soviet newspaper, Pravda, in its Friday edition, reports that, as the paper puts it, a number of CIA agents posing as diplomats have been caught after it was discovered they were involved in espionage, sabotage, and terror against the Soviet Union.

The report also says that one man, identified only as D. Kolinien (?), believed to be a Soviet citizen, was convicted of spying for the US and has been executed.
